After the lovely supper which was conspicuous for the elegance of its service, the young gentlemen of the party were invited and a pleasant time socially was had. Music on mandolin and guitar was a special feature of the evening's pleasure. Refreshments of ices and cake were served during the evening, which was one of rare pleasure for the entertained.

The following young people were present: Misses Perla and Aileen Strother, Frances Napton, Louise VanDyke, Vergie and Louise Woodbridge, and Miss Buckner, of Auxvasse; Messrs Warren Colvert, Arch Naylor, Charles Chapline, Arthur Strother, Clayton Lamkin, John Booth, Leonard VanDyke, Harry Striker and Abner Gore.

Party on East Arrow St.

Miss Dosha Rector was at home on Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 6, to a number of her young friends in a very cordial and charming manner and the time passed most pleasantly with games and hammocks on the lawn. Music by Agnes Lester Hall, Mary Duggins and the young hostess on the piano, while Warren Viley delighted all present with his music on the banjo.

A peanut hunt was the principal game of the evening and one that provided much fun for everybody.

Miss Ethel Ross received the first prize a beautiful fancy plate. Katherine Viley, who failed in her efforts to locate as many peanuts as the others received the booty, a pair of celluloid balls. Everett and Land Barnum carried off the boys' prize, a lovely stick pin for the former and a baby rattle for Land. Punch was served by Miss Helen Duggins. Refreshments of pine apple ice and cake were much enjoyed by the party of little folks who were: Katherine Viley, Agnes Lester Hall, Louise Lemon, Mary and Helen Duggins, Mittie Huff, Ethel Ross, Katherine and Eleanor Donchoo, Messrs Land and Everett Barnum, Ashby Ross and Warren Viley.

A Musical Treat.

The concert given by Miss Katherine Cordell at the College chapel on next Tuesday night, Aug. 15th, will be one of the greatest musical treats the good people of Marshall have ever had. Miss Cordell possesses a pleasing personality and her beautiful, cultivated voice and artistic singing is bound to challenge admiration, whenever heard. Tickets on sale, 25c at P. H. Franklin's.

Progressive Crokinole.

This ever popular game of Crokinole, and one that is increasing in favor daily, at many summer resorts, was played with much interest and pleasure on Friday morning at the home of Mrs. T. W. Hunter on East North St., where a party of young people were entertained in honor of Miss Buckner of Auxvasse, a relative of the hostess, who made Marshall a short visit recently. And while the thermometer bubbled merrily upward, this happy party of young people played on and on, perfectly oblivious to everything but the pleasure of the moment.

Delicious ice-cold lemonade was passed every few minutes and as often as passed it was drank and the universal verdict was that it was the best ever made.

Mrs. Hunter was assisted by Mrs. J. E. Harris and the morning was an especially pleasant one.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Those present were Misses Agnes Spencer, May Northern, Fannie Francisco, Virgie and Louise Woodbridge, Fannie Vawter, Louise VanDyke, Edith Mitchell and Miss Strother.

Residence Burned.

Mr. Flail Mathews who lives on a farm near Herndon, lost his residence, a 4 room house by fire on Sunday night. The entire roof was on fire when the family discovered the fire, and the house and everything in it, excepting several feather beds were destroyed. After the family had left the burning house, they missed Mrs. Mathews, who was found in the burning building in a bewildered condition, almost suffocated with smoke and heat.

Mr. Mathews carried insurance in the Marshall Town Mutual Insurance Co., for $750. Mrs. Mathews is a daughter of our fellow townsman, Wm. Herndon of East North St.

Real Estate.

Lee P. Viley sold on Friday the property on East Arrow St., which belonged to the Mrs. Mathew King estate to the Dawes Bros for $1700.

A Visit to Sulphur Springs.

A merry party of young people drove out to Sulphur Springs north of town on Friday and in spite of the intense heat they enjoyed every minute of the day, with hammocks plenty of good reading matter and a splendid dinner, which included iced melons, ice cream and lovely cake.

The following persons were of the party: Misses Nell Mason, Maidie Montague, Jessie Sparks, Fannie and Katherine Cordell, Messrs Geo. Davis, Will Armistead, John Dyer and Jim Roberts.

Dog Shot.

N. F. Randolph, who owned a very fine coach dog that he had refused fifty dollars for, shot him on Sunday night, for biting his son Ora.

The dog and his young master were very fond of each other, and while the boy was petting him he bit him on the cheek. He would frequently snap at Ora, and only a short time ago he bit him on the arm. The family were much attached to the dog, although he always seemed more or less treacherous.

Will Leave Marshall Sept. 1.

Mr. W. H. Leonard returned last week from the Indian Territory where he made arrangements to locate, and he with his family will leave Sept. 1st for Miami, Indian Territory, which is about 35 miles from Joplin, the great mining center. It is a place of 2000 inhabitants and a fine agricultural region.

Mr. Leonard will engage in the implement business and the REPUBLICAN joins with the friends of this excellent family in wishing them abundant success.

Marriage Licenses.

A. J. Umphlet and Minnie Ake-man, Herndon.

Robt. Richards, (col.), and Lena Morton, Marshall.

G. M. Watterson and Carrie M. Logan, Lamonte.

Geo. Glasgow, (col.), and Octave Miles, Marshall.

It Was a Good Game.

The Marshall Ball team defeated the Armstrong's Monday, at Sportsman's Park before a medium sized crowd, score 7 to 3. Matt Davis umpired and the game was interesting, but the arms of the visitors were not sufficiently strong to bat out enough earned runs to prove themselves at any time in the game.

W. G. Blair and W. A. Vawter spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Gaines at Blackburn and as they returned Monday morning on the C. & A. the engine broke down and delayed the train 2 hours.
